

There's Nothing Complicated About this Spreader

One big reason why the John Deere Spreader gives highly satisfactory service at low cost for repairs is its simplicity. It has no chains, no clutches, and only about half the parts necessary on the ordinary spreader. It gives extra years of service.

JOHN DEERE SPREADER

The Spreader with the Beater on the Axle

The beater-on-the-axle construction has made it possible to produce so simple and so durable a manure spreader. This feature is patented—no other spreader can use it. Its driving gears are entirely enclosed—they operate in oil within a dust-proof case—they will wear for years.

In looking at the John Deere Spreader, be sure to note that all of the main working parts are mounted on the rear axle, where they can't get out of line to cause binding, heavy draft and breakage.

The John Deere is a low—There is no machine we sell that we recommend more highly. Come in and let us show it to you.

THE JORDAN HARDWARE CO.

Telephone 700

WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

COLCHESTER

Harry Rignall of Colchester, Vt., formerly of this place, is visiting relatives in town for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lyman were the guests of friends in Willimantic Tuesday.

Miss Eva Cohen of New York is the guest of her parents on Lilwood avenue for the holidays.

The Jewish holidays began Wednesday evening, all their places of business will close for two days. The Feast of the Passover is being celebrated. Services being held in the synagogue on Lebanon avenue.

The body of Mrs. Jane Randall, who died in Norwich, was brought here for burial Wednesday afternoon in Lilwood cemetery.

Ray E. Keller, of Norwich, county secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was in town this week in the interest of the organization.

Charles Perkins of East Haddam was here Wednesday.

One of the large auto trucks passed through the village Wednesday afternoon going toward Norwich for work on the new stretch of road which is to be built through Lebanon, beginning at the Colchester line and extending to the Boston line. Work will begin next week.

Volunteer Star Lodge, O. E. S., held a meeting in Masonic hall Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Chapman moved to Norwich Wednesday.

Engineer John Smith of the highway department was in New London Wednesday.

Morton A. Taintor Post, G. A. R., held a meeting at the home of Comrade E. R. Hill, on Pleasant street, Thursday afternoon to make arrangements for Memorial Day. The post and American Legion will go to North Westchester this year to decorate graves.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Strong, Mrs. Mary Talbot and William Johnson moved to Norwich Tuesday.

noon going toward Norwich for work on the new stretch of road which is to be built through Lebanon, beginning at the Colchester line and extending to the Boston line. Work will begin next week.

Volunteer Star Lodge, O. E. S., held a meeting in Masonic hall Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Chapman moved to Norwich Wednesday.

Engineer John Smith of the highway department was in New London Wednesday.

Morton A. Taintor Post, G. A. R., held a meeting at the home of Comrade E. R. Hill, on Pleasant street, Thursday afternoon to make arrangements for Memorial Day. The post and American Legion will go to North Westchester this year to decorate graves.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Strong, Mrs. Mary Talbot and William Johnson moved to Norwich Tuesday.

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN
Willimantic Office
51 Church Street Telephone 1082

A Buick automobile owned and driven by Reginald Ward, of Norwich, and a Dodge automobile driven by a Lebanon party figured in an accident late Thursday afternoon at the junction of Center and Union streets. The car was driven by Mr. Ward was headed west on Union street and just before reaching Center street the Dodge car turned out of Center street and headed east. Mr. Ward to avoid colliding with the Dodge swung sharply to the right and increased his speed. The car struck the curb, breaking off the right front wheel at the hub, the rear wheel mounting the sidewalk. The large show window at the A. J. Martin's store, each operator felt that the other was to blame for the accident. At the police station the matter was settled to the satisfaction of both.

Emmer Howlett, of Mt. Hope was before the police court Thursday morning charged with not having his car registration when he was stopped by the police after passing his car Wednesday afternoon on the highway. The side of Union street looked upon the registration as an oversight and the charge in the case was noted on payment of $5.35.

Plenty of excitement prevailed in Phoenixville and on highways between that town and this city Wednesday night, while State Policeman Russell Harmon, of Stafford Springs, and the local police searched until late into the night for three men who stole the Metz automobile of Harold Copeland which had been parked in a lot near a sawmill at Phoenixville, Wednesday afternoon. The thieves were seen to take the car by the rural mail carrier, who with aid gave chase. The automobile was found later abandoned about two miles from the location of the theft, but a search failed to produce the men who took the car. According to the description, the men wore khaki shirts and blue serge suits.

Archdeacon J. Eldred Brown, of Norwich, delivered the sermon at the service of preparation for the Eastern communion at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Thursday night at the church. At three hour service is to be held at the church today (Good Friday) from 12 noon until 3 p. m. Rev. Walter F. Borchert, rector, has announced that people attending the service and who cannot remain through the entire service are requested to leave the church during the singing of the hymns.

Call from Near East for three more cargoes of food to save the starving peoples of Russian Armenia have brought forth a local response and the committee in charge of the Near East fund has announced the following donations of recent date:

Natchaug School	$29.82
Winthrop Center School	$1.00
Frank Varaboe	$1.00
Ladies Missionary Society	$1.00
Ladies Center	$1.00
Miss Julia Guild	$1.00
Mrs. J. Alden Veir	$1.00
Total	$124.82

Indications are that the carnival to be given by St. Mary's parish this month will be the largest of its kind ever by any local organization. The proceeds are for the benefit of the new rectory on Maple avenue which was recently purchased from the administration of the late Mrs. Mary P. Marble, and which is in the remodelled and finished prior to occupancy. The following committee has been appointed in charge of the affair:

been appointed in charge of the affair: Elizabeth Dinn, chairman; Rev. Hermasides Beloe, treasurer; Charles E. Froese, secretary; Arthur P. Bergeron, Cyril Lamoureux, Charles DeVilliers, Alfred Lariviere, George Pelouquin, Henry Demourant, Arthur Dubreil, Joseph Gaudreau, Albert J. Fournier, and all president of the various French societies of the city. The committee at a meeting held Thursday evening at St. Mary's hall reported that everything was going most encouragingly.

San Jose council, No. 14, Knights of Columbus has been given one night during the carnival and members are to attend in a body. Grand Knights Arthur P. Bergeron having appointed Jeremiah Murphy, Salvatore Bertora, Florimond Bergeron, Albert Piche and George Murphy a committee of arrangements.

Archibald W. Buchanan, of Mansfield, agent for the state board of education, was at the common council chamber in the town building Thursday for the purpose of meeting children seeking employment certificates. An unusually large number of children called upon were given the required tests up to the sixth grade subjects. About a half dozen of them passed the requirements and received working certificates.

Funeral services for Mrs. Louis L. Eklund were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from No. 312 Main street, Rev. Walter F. Borchert, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church officiating. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends and there were beautiful floral tributes. A committal service was read at the grave in the family burial plot in the Willimantic cemetery by Rev. Mr. Borchert. The bearers were Joseph and Archie Hanson, Henry Moran, Herman Caldero, Donald Parent and Frank Thompson.

Mrs. Louis Braham Kinnis died Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Elmer Engstrom of South Willimantic. Mrs. Kinnis was born in Brooklyn, November 2, 1852, the daughter of Thomas and Sarah Tyler Braham. Her home for fifty years past had been in South Willimantic. Mrs. Kinnis leaves two sons, Robert A. Kinnis and Clifford Kinnis, one sister, Mrs. Louis B. Robinson and a nephew, A. L. Robinson.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ovide Lariviere were held Thursday morning at 9:15 o'clock from her home, 120 Hope street, with services at St. Mary's church at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. Hermasides Beloe officiating. As the body was taken to the funeral home it was met by a delegation from the St. Anne society and escorted to the funeral home. The bearers were Mrs. Eugene Cote, Mrs. Victor Demers, and Mrs. Louis B. Robinson. The funeral home was Mrs. Pierre Cote, Mrs. Charles Garneau, Mrs. Alfred Desrosiers, and Mrs. Emma Lambert. The committal service at the grave was read by Rev. Mr. Borchert. The bearers were Frederick Joseph and Edward Lariviere, and Adolphe Joseph and William Beaud. The attendance at the service was large and there were beautiful floral offerings.

Roland Jordan is on a business trip of several days to Boston.

Local buyers were getting ready Thursday to supply a big demand for the hot cross buns, a Good Friday food item.

A. W. Noyes, son of Mrs. Emily A. Noyes of Liberty Hill, and a native of Lebanon, has been promoted to the office of assistant general passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific railway, with headquarters in Chicago.

The Eastern Sunday offering at the Catholic churches of this city will be used for diocesan charities.

Commercial Teachers' convention to be held in Rochester April 15th.

Twenty applicants for operators' licenses visited State Policeman Russell Harmon at his home in this city.

Daniel Barlett of St. Carmel school, Mt. Carmel, Conn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Owen O'Neill of North street.

Dr. and Mrs. Owen O'Neill left Thursday night for Atlantic City for over Easter.

Brain Raftery of Brown university is at his home for the holidays.

Howard Knight of Yale is at home for the Easter vacation.

SHORT CALENDAR SESSION

AT WILLIMANTIC MONDAY

Windham county superior court short calendar at Willimantic, Monday, April 17, at 11 o'clock a. m. Judge George E. Hiltman presiding. The short calendar list:

Emma M. Davis vs. William C. Davis; Wawrasynic Gmyr, ad. vs. Dora and Morris Foster; Benjamin Byers vs. William H. Phillips; Joseph Peck vs. Joseph Hochberg et al; Roy Gosselino vs. Katherine Gosselino; Homer L. Willis vs. Flora B. Willis; Mary Grush vs. Frank Pangello; ad. ex. Everett Richmond vs. Veronica Richmond; Carl A. Stahns vs. Harriet Stahns.

Uncontested Divorces—Margaret Chautau vs. George Chautau; Samuel E. Lyman vs. Lucy A. Lyman.

JEWETT CITY

The World Wide Guild girls of the Baptist church, Mrs. A. M. Brown, leader, conducted a cafeteria supper in the vestry Thursday evening. The menu included baked beans, American chop suey, pickles, potato salad, rolls, sponge cake with chocolate sauce and whipped cream, jelly and cream and coffee. The girls served the supper and Mrs. Brown was assisted by Mrs. Francis Campbell and Mrs. John Harris. The members present at a play, Wait a Minute, most acceptably. The characters were: Christina Lulu Larkin, Mother Esther Frink, The Voice of the Clock, Evelyn Gardner, Child, Mildred Gilbert, Alaska boy, William Brewster, Indian boy, Clarence Sweet, Chinese girl, Georgia Campbell, college girl, Ruth Davis; immigrant woman, Margaret Trudell; immigrant woman's daughter, Rose Crumb; elderly Hindu woman, Ruth Bliven; Bible woman, Helen Babcock; young Hindu woman, Elizabeth Willis; Mexican woman, Anna Franklin; trained nurse, Alice Gilbert.

THE STORY OF THE PLAY WAS A TELLING MISSIONARY LESSON

The Y. P. S. C. E. flower committee of the Congregational church held an Easter sale and entertainment in the vestry Wednesday evening. The Easter novelties made by Miss A. J. Burdick and Mrs. Anna Cummings were very ingenious and attractive. Homemade candies were sold by Miss Josephine Thompson, Esther Bliss, daffodils, primroses, lily chins, chrysanthemums, begonias, crimson ranunculus, carnations and ferns from Whiting's greenhouse were sold by Mrs. William McNeil and Miss Isabel Marshall. Cake and ice cream were sold by Miss Anna Littlefield, Ruth Miner and Alice Littlefield. Miss Gladys Thompson arranged an entertaining programme, including humorous readings by Ethel Finks, Miss Burdick and Mrs. E. H. Hixcox, a violin solo by Charles Parkhurst, vocal solo by Ethel Parkhurst, and a duet by Doris Johnson and Ethel Parkhurst. A hot and cold fashioned song by old familiar voices. Ethel Thompson and Verti McBroome were the accompanists. In an Easter egg hunt in charge of Ethel Thompson, the prize, a big bouquet of daffodils, Parkhurst, Miss Burdick was in charge, assisted by the girls of the society.

A stereoscopic lecture on The Coral Islands of the Pacific, with seventy views, was given by the Congregational Missionary society Thursday evening. Mrs. Mary Brown of Atlantic City, sent a gift to the society, part of which was used to give this lecture. Bradford Ricketts of Greenville operated the stereoscope, and the lecture was given by Mrs. F. E. Robinson and Mrs. E. H. Hixcox. Members of Newcom society were present. Tea and wafers were served by Misses Marian Robinson and Helen Hall.

Mrs. N. J. Babcock reports the first lamb-kill in bloom for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holbrook, of Holbrook, Mass., have been visiting Mrs. W. G. Duce, Mrs. Duce goes to Holbrook with them today (Friday) to spend the summer. Mrs. and Mr. Holbrook are on their way home from Florida.

Mrs. Abbie Rice, wife of C. Herbert Rice of Voluntem, died at Babcock hospital, Thursday. She is survived by her husband and six children, three having died. These living are Mrs. J. H. Hoover, Mrs. Louis Richardson, Mrs. James Harrington, Henry and Leroy Rice of Central Village.

PLAINFIELD

Miss S. Thompson Palmer, state supervisor of schools, visited Plainfield Thursday.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars held a meeting Wednesday evening.

The high school pupils of Central Village are preparing for a play to be given at Plainfield soon.

Miss Hattie Larkston celebrated her 63rd birthday Wednesday, receiving numerous gifts and good wishes from friends. Miss Tarbox is noted for her exquisite crocheting.

The schools closed Thursday for the remainder of the week.

E. Goulet of Providence was a business caller here Thursday.

Mass of the pre-sanctified will be held at 8 o'clock this (Friday) morning at St. John's church. The afternoon service at 3 o'clock will consist of commemorations of the Saviour's passion. The church stainer will be draped in black to help

RAISE MORE BETTER CHICKS

WORTHMORE CHICK FEEDS

Feed Hens Right
They Will Lay Right;
The Right Feed Is
Worthmore Buttermilk Mash

It is the always uniform combination of rich, sweet, ground grains with pure dried buttermilk, beef scraps, dried milk albumen and fish meal, that makes WORTHMORE MASH so high in protein and low in fibre.

Successful poultry raisers have proved that it is the ONE mash that can always be depended upon to be right.

Valuable Feeding Instructions—Free Write to St. Albans Grain Co.

CHAS. M. COX CO. ST. ALBANS GRAIN CO.
Wholesale Distributors Manufacturers
Boston, Mass. (M-2) St. Albans, Vermont

THE BEST

Christians to realize more fully the great tragedy of Mr. Calvary.

Postmaster Charles A. Jerome has announced the following postoffice hours for Good Friday: 9:10 a. m. to 4 p. m. All Plainfield scores will be closed all day.

OCCUM AND VERSAILLES

Alfred Phillips has secured the appointment for carrying the mail between the Versailles railroad station and the Versailles postoffice. Mr. Phillips succeeds O. Laikovich.

Rev. C. W. Ruff began his pastoral at the Versailles M. E. church Sunday. A hearty welcome was extended to Rev. Mr. Ruff by a large congregation.

Members of the Ladies Aid society of the Versailles M. E. church recently presented Rev. and Mrs. Charles Smith a mahogany chest of silver as an appreciation of Mr. Smith's 12 years faithful and helpful pastorate.

Symphony being expressed by a large circle of friends in the loss of their son, Thomas Hargreaves, who entered the government service in June in the coast department. Death was caused by drowning the body not having been found yet.

Work is being pushed by Joseph Dugas on the property recently secured near the store of H. A. Richards. Mr. Dugas is planning for a combination building for the use of himself and family as a residence and shop.

The small three building on the property of the Portland Manufacturing company recently secured of John H. and Herbert A. Richards is being remodeled. Walter Watkins recently received a shipment of young chicks as an addition to his flock.

Frank Fuller is driving a new car. Frank Pearson of Vernon was a guest Wednesday of his brother, James Pearson.

Mrs. Irving Gregory, Mrs. C. H. Boyens and Mrs. F. B. Bushnell served at the recent meeting of the Ladies Aid society, a pleasing feature of the meeting being the floral decorations from the home of Mrs. Gregory.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Meriden—Atlantic encampment, No. 25, I. O. O. F., celebrated its 50th anniversary Wednesday evening with an entertainment and dance.

New Haven—Burglars broke into the home of Harold Watson in New Haven the other night while the family was away and stole $4,999 worth of jewelry and furs.

Hartford—Dr. John T. Black, state commissioner of health, talked to the Hartford Rotary club at his luncheon in the Hotel Bond Monday on Connecticut's Death Rate.

Sofield—The interior of the postoffice has been redecorated and new equipment was put in place this week. The postoffice department has arranged for another ten years' lease.

Meriden—Mrs. Julia Coppertille, the oldest resident of Meriden, died Thursday, April 6, at the age of 104, from injuries sustained in a fall. She was born in England and came to Meriden 57 years ago.

Middletown—Diamonded and looking much like a coal mine, the former United States training ship Adams arrived here this week in tow of the Sparan and was moored at the foot of William street. When the water reaches a higher point the ship will be towed north of Glider-street land and beached, where she will be set afire for the purpose of getting the remaining metal in her hull.

Westbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Vincent Harrison of Montclair, N. J., have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Dorothy and Frederic Palmer Plake Thursday, April 27, at 4:30 p. m., in the Congregational church at Montclair, N. J. The groom is a graduate of Yale and a son of the late Fred

Adds quality to cooking

With the cream left in!

WALL PAPERS

Wall Paper is the logical wall covering for the modern home, for it offers unlimited choice in appropriate designs and colors and provides the maximum of decorative effect at the least possible cost.

In assembling our line of wall paper we have endeavored to select only such patterns as combine beauty in pattern and color at a moderate price.

Our complete line is now ready, and we would appreciate an opportunity to show you the many new patterns in our large stock.

The J. C. Lincoln Co.

Main and Union Streets, Willimantic, Conn.
Complete Home Furnishers
Phone 705-3

Undertakers
Phone 705-2
HAVE YOU A HOOSIER KITCHEN CABINET IN YOUR HOME?

IRVING'S VARIETY STORE

55 CHURCH STREET WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Telephone 1090

"Just a Few Steps Off Main Street, But It Pays to Walk"

Same Goods For Less Money

Crockery — Enamelware — More Goods For Same Money

Glassware — Woodenware — Aluminumware — Tinware — Toys — Notions — Dry Goods — Hardware — Etc.

ONE OF OUR MANY WEEK-END SPECIALS

10 3/4-INCH DEEP

ALUMINUM Double Round ROASTER

20-GAUGE ALUMINUM

$1.09

COME IN AND LOOK AROUND!

WE DELIVER SUBSTANTIAL ORDERS.

NUXATED IRON

If you are not strong or well, you need Nuxated Iron. It will give you the strength you need. It will give you the strength you need. It will give you the strength you need.

JAY M. SHEPARD

Succeeding Filmore & Shepard
Funeral Director & Embalmer
60-62 NORTH ST. WILLIMANTIC, CONN.
Ladies Assistant Tel. Connection

Killourey Bros.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
66 Union St. Willimantic, Conn. (Ladies Assistant)
Phone 292

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE

Willimantic, Conn.

THINGS YOU NEED WITH YOUR EASTER COSTUME

Silk Jersey Petticoats

Not to be outdone by the very clever Suit, Dress or Skirt—Petticoats have decided to be just as alluring and pleasingly different as they possibly could.

The new arrivals reveal several new styles which will interest you, in shades to match your Easter costume. These are priced as low as $3.98 up to $7.98.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

Joseph W. Fordney

Representative from Michigan and Chairman of the powerful War and Means Committee